Dear [Redacted]

STAT

Your letter of March 19 to [Redacted] has slowly made its way to the persons in this Agency who are most concerned with the type of project described by you and [Redacted]

STAT

We, along with a number of other Federal agencies, are of course interested in experiments such as yours. As you doubtless know, a number of persons and institutions are pursuing work along the same line. Despite our interest, however, it is not feasible for us to lend financial assistance to such efforts at this time.

We are grateful to you for informing us of your important work.

Sincerely yours,

Claude E. Hawley
